We are pleased to invite you to our “Doing Business with China” event.

Russell Brown, Managing Partner of Lehman Brown China will be joining us as our guest speaker for the evening. Russell will tell us how business is currently being conducted in China and will be focusing on the following areas:

- Opportunities for doing business in China
- Overview of China’s tax and business legislation
- Tax planning and tax structuring

This will be an informal event and will be an excellent opportunity for those either currently doing business in China or those thinking of doing business there.
