Address: 50F Capital Mansion, Capital Club, Beijing
6 Xin Yuan Nan Road, Chao Yang District

Understanding your tax obligation in the UK and China as an expatriate living abroad is not always as straightforward as one might assume. LehmanBrown International Accountants in association with Bluestar AMG would like to invite you to attend a free seminar at the exclusive Beijing Capital Club to demystify and address the key tax issues affecting both UK and China nationals living in either the UK or China.

For the expatriates living in the People's Republic of China, we will explain the current tax climate here in the PRC as well as addressing the UK tax system and its impact on British non domiciles. Within these areas, we will present best practice points for the NEW Individual Income Tax (IIT) law in China, and planning opportunities.

For UK nationals returning or Chinese or other nationals seeking to invest into the UK, the seminar will cover residency tests, when taxes become payable, what the taxes are on investments, and in particular UK tax linked with buying a property in the name of an individual, company or trust.

Mr. Alastair Mc Quater, Partner, Buzzacott

Alastair is a partner at Buzzacott, an accounting firm formed in 1919, and heads the firm's business tax team of more than 20 professionals. Alastair works with each of the firm's specialist teams to provide tax strategy and planning services to a broad range of domestic and international, commercial and not for profit organisations and their owners.

Recent experience includes a large number of structuring projects for FCA regulated businesses, planning for professional practices, cross border tax planning for companies and LLPs, property tax planning for charities, pre-transaction tax planning for a range of corporate transactions and the negotiation of tax warranties and indemnities for inclusion in share sale agreements, together with tax planning for a range of wealthy individuals.

Much of Alastair's work involves creating commercial solutions for businesses and their owners, always keeping tax in mind while ensuring that the plans are practical. Typical work in this area includes business structuring, succession planning, acquisitions or disposals, share options and other employee incentives.

Alastair is a Chartered Accountant and a Chartered Tax Adviser.
